

The Voice in the Wilderness Mission

Anchored For The Coming Crisis

“Lift up the trumpet, and loud let it ring: Jesus is coming again....”

The lyrical proclamation of this hymn should fill every Christian believer’s heart with joyous anticipation. Unfortunately, many Christians find themselves paralyzed by fear and dread as they think about the crisis that looms between them and this glorious event.

“And there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation....” Daniel 12:1.

The word of God predicts a time of trouble coming to earth that will precede the second coming of Christ; a time that will severely test and try every true believer, and only those who are firmly anchored in Christ will survive the storm. Will your anchor hold?

The Voice in the Wilderness Mission will host a series of weekend workshops called, Anchored for the Coming Crisis. We will focus on the spiritual and physical preparation needed to face the coming crisis and foremost; on being prepared to meet our God. Join us as we discover together how to exchange our fear for faith, our panic for peace, and how to be securely anchored in a love relationship with Christ that nothing in this world can shake or destroy.
